

Course Outline
MTH 499 Topics in Mathematics
SPRING 2004

Department: Mathematics

Credit Hours: 1-4

Prerequisite: MTH 242 and Permission of Department Chairman

General Education: #9 Quantitative Competence

Learning Outcomes:

I. Course Description: Intended for advanced students in mathematics. Presents topics of particular interest to the student.

II. Purpose of the Course: The course explores special topics in Mathematics that are not emphasized in other mathematics courses. These include: the history of mathematics, number theory and topology.

III. Learning Outcomes and Objectives:

V. Topical Outline: To be determined by instructor and the student