If you have pleaded guilty to or been convicted of any of the above, it is important that you contact the Administrator of Investigations, Office of Professional Conduct, Ohio Department of Education (614/466-5638) on your own or through an attorney in order to determine if you are ineligible for an Ohio teacher license prior to continuing to pursue a teaching license through Lourdes University. Please note that pleading “no contest” is equivalent to pleading “guilty” and that the Ohio Department of Education may investigate court records that have been sealed or expunged.

Effective July 1, 1987, The Ohio Department of Education requires that all students admitted to Teacher Licensure Programs in Ohio must be deemed to be of Good Moral Character as defined below (Rule 3301-21-01 of the Administrative Code):

“A person shall be deemed to be of good moral character provided that said individual has not pleaded guilty to or been convicted of any felony, any violation, or any offense that is not a minor misdemeanor, or any substantively comparable ordinance of a municipal corporation or of another state. An individual who has pleaded guilty to or has been convicted of any such offense may have an application for certification considered by the State Board of Education, provided said individual meets the conditions specified in Rule 3301-23-23 of the Administrative Code.”

Lourdes University Department of Education is, therefore, obligated to require that all students pursuing programs leading to Ohio teacher licensure sign the Affidavit of Good Moral Character statement indicating that they are of good moral character, as defined by the above Rule.
