

Dual Enrollment Course Pathway: EDUCATION

Lourdes University offers Dual Enrollment courses for all high school students to earn both high school and college credit, simultaneously. To learn more about our program options and how to apply, visit our website.

EDUCATION Pathway Courses*

*The courses listed are not guaranteed. Placement is based on student aptitude, pre-requisite requirements and course availability per semester.

Pre-Requisites to Education Program*	General Education Requirements*
EDU 100: Foundations of Education	ENG 101: College Composition
EDU 151: Technology in Learning	HST 121: Survey of United States History I
EDU 230: Survey of Special Needs Education	PHL 101: Introduction to Philosophy
EDU 250: Educational Psychology and Human Development	Any Theology (THS) course
EDU 216: Multicultural & Social Issues in Education	MUS 113: Integrating Music into the Early Childhood Classroom OR ART 117: Art for the Teachers of Young Children

Entry to EDU 216 requires completion EDU 100, 230, and 250 as pre-requisites.

High school students that complete the Pre-Requisite Courses (left column) and meet the following requirements are eligible for direct admission to the Education Program:

- 3.0 GPA
- Earn at least a B in all bold courses (EDU 100, 151, 230, and 250)
- ACT scores: Math – 22 | Reading – 21 | English – 18

Courses within the General Education Requirements can be taken in any sequence and work towards completion of the program, getting you closer to graduating with a degree in Education!

For a complete listing of all areas of study, course information and descriptions, visit: Lourdes Course Catalog

For Course Schedule information for the current/upcoming semester, visit: Lourdes Course Schedule

Students will work with an academic advisor for course exploration, recommendations, and selection.

Contact Vince Laverick, Ed.D: Department Chair of Education

419-824-3840 | vlaverick@lourdes.edu

Contact Jordyn Lee: Lourdes Dual Enrollment Admissions Counselor

419-517-8915 | jlee3@lourdes.edu | <https://www.lourdes.edu/admissions/wolf-pack-plus>

